I am amending the Exhibit B filed on June 2, 2021. During early May of 2022, I was contacted by a former colleague, Paul Kennedy, living in Liberia and inquiring if I could assist with arranging a meeting/conference between a Liberian delegation and U.S. Government officials and local businesspeople in South Carolina. I contacted my associate Tory Fields who arranged meetings between the Liberian delegation and the staff of local politicians Senator Tim Scott and Congressman Jim Clyburn, as well as local businesspeople in Charleston, SC. The official dates of the delegation's visit to the U.S. were May 24-26, 2021. I participated in all activities and meetings with the delegation. For the services I provided, the Liberian delegation paid me $20,000.00. I in turn paid Mr. Fields $20,000.00 for his consultancy services. I retained no fees nor received any commission for services rendered on behalf of the Liberian delegation. The benefit I sought was the ability to do future business with the Liberian Government on behalf of its people. My services on behalf of the foreign principal terminated prior to registration.
